1. Draw a layout of your home, including all doors and windows.

2. Label 2 escape routes in each room.

3. Choose a safe meeting point outside of your home.

4. Conduct at least two family fire escape plans each year, teaching children how to escape safely.

5. When the smoke alarm sounds, immediately leave the house and call 9-1-1.